PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING PROPERTY MANAGERS AND OWNERS

NAHMA Educational Foundation Thanks Generous Supporters

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 31, 2025 — The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) Educational Foundation recently concluded its 2024 program year. The foundation awarded 118 scholarships worth $3,500 each; the total scholarship money awarded for 2024 was $413,000. Additionally, $2,000 was donated to the Department of Apparel, Housing, and Resource Management at Virginia Tech for scholarships for students pursuing their bachelor's degree in property management. Since 2007, the scholarship program's inaugural year, more than 1,300 scholarships totaling over $3,398,000 have been awarded to more than 760 residents.

Last year's fundraising campaign culminated with the NAHMA Educational Foundation's annual fundraising gala. The Inspire Gala, which was held at The Hamilton in October 2024, serves as the primary public fundraising event for the foundation, with proceeds going to the scholarship program. Thanks to donors, the event raised over $600,000.

The 2025 scholarship application will be available to prospective applicants beginning Feb. 12. Any student resident who is a high school graduate or holds a high school equivalency diploma enrolled at an accredited community college, college, university, or trade/technical school and is a resident in good standing at an AHMA- or NAHMA-member multifamily communities are invited to apply for the scholarship program. The applications will be due May 12. For more details on applying for a NAHMA Educational Foundation scholarship, contact Dr. Bruce W. Johnson, NAHMA scholarship program administrator, at bjohnson@tmo.com or 215-262-4230.

In addition, the NAHMA Educational Foundation has key fundraising events planned for 2025, including the Inspire Gala, on Oct. 23, at Long View Gallery, 1234 Ninth St. NW, in conjunction with NAHMA's annual meeting in Washington, D.C. The foundation will release more details about the gala around late summer. A separate ticket from the NAHMA October meeting registration is required to attend the fundraiser.
